Classic design meets tradition

Of all collections in the Bauscher range, the chinaware with the distinctive crosshatch relief has the richest tradition. This charismatic collection has figured prominently in high-end catering since 1911, and is still going strong today. The Stuttgart collection's trademark relief unites neo-classicist and Biedermeier elements to add an air of distinction to flatware and hollowware. Design: Atelier Bauscher, 1911

THE PORCELAIN OF TOMORROW – SINCE 1881

Bauscher has always held that porcelain art can be practiced to perfection without sacrificing an iota of functionality, to which the Stuttgart collection was the first shining example. This has persisted until today. Today as then, all Stuttgart dinnerware items feature the typical Bauscher attributes – they are stackable, break-proof, and delightfully easy to handle.

*Décor: Charlottenburg Gelb-Gold – Farbige Kreuze.
Further Stuttgart décor options are featured in the décor and articles overview on page 4.*

German elegance par excellence

Regal and extensive, this collection captures the buoyant mood prevailing at the dawn of the 20th century and brings it to modern tables. This, among its many other strong attributes, is the reason why Stuttgart, wherever it is brought into service, is such a popular choice.
